1. US Embassy Moscow counsels firmness in Berlin--US Embassy Moscow expresses the hope that military leaders of the western forces in Berlin will no longer feel restrained from taking all countermeasures necessary to prepare the Berlin western sectors for indefinite operation under full control of the western powers. The Embassy believes that such a demonstration of determination would not prejudice the presentation of the Berlin case to the Security Council but might have a "healthy influence" on the Soviet attitude both in the Security Council and in Berlin. 25X1 25X1 [redacted] the Dutch Government's conditional acceptance of the US plan as a basis for the resumption of GOC negotiations. US Embassy The Hague reports that the Dutch are continuing discussions in the Netherlands with non-Republican Indonesians with a view to developing some substitute for a solution by the GOC.

(CIA Comment: The apparent success the Indonesian Republic has had in coping with the Communist revolt should materially strengthen its position in renewed negotiations. Continued Dutch attempts to form an interim government with non-Republican Indonesians before an agreement has been reached with the Republic are likely to precipitate another crisis in GOC negotiations.)
